A full-service, independent Belgian business law firm, Lydian's team of 65 young lawyers has worked hard to put our dynamic and innovative office on the map. We are now looking for law graduates who have the enthusiasm and personality to help us build on our success and meet the challenges that lie ahead.

Are you ready to take the plunge?

At Lydian, a stimulating job with variety and excellent professional opportunities awaits you, where you will be advising a good mix of Belgian and international clients in a wide array of sectors.

Lydian seeks skilled, dynamic young law graduates. While languages (Dutch, English and French) and good academic results are important, Lydian also believes that passion, pragmatic legal skills and social intelligence are equally important.
